Disn.-On the 26th of September, Many Francis, wife of Isaac Baker, aged 39 years,

For twelve months she lay prostrate on a bed of pain. Indeed her sufferings were very accute, and well nigh constant, from the beginning of her illness, and although she was habitually patient and unmurmuring, at times her agony was so intense that she would cry out in anguish of spirit as if pierced through by some sharp and sudden

But, pusised be God, suffering led her to the Saviour, and toward the close of her illness, she was enabled to say that her only hope of salvation was in Him. That she trusted not in her own righteousness nor any thing that she had done, but only and entirely to the love, mercy, and merits of her adorable Redeemer, " who loved her and gave himself for her." Who when He was on earth was a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief." Her affliction seemed to help her to feel nearer akin to Him, and she became resigned to leave this world, to go and dwell with Him whenever it might please Him to take her away-she commended Him as a precious Saviour to her husband, and her children and exhorted them so to live as to meet, her, one day, in heaven. And thus triumphing through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, over sufferings such as mortals rarely experience, on the morning of the 26th of September her released spirit was repassing in the Paradise of God "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest."

of the "intelligent" freedmen of Bolivar. It seems that a Georgia negro "tricked," 'hoodooed," "charmed," "bewitched," or caused "a spell" to settle upon the fair (?) form of a dusky Dinah. The unfortunate and cruelly tampered with maiden, so the story goes, was told by the subtle Georgian that a pied spider would bite her on the back of the neck, and that she would loose the use of herself, and become as helpless as an infant. At the time designated the spider made its appearence, and fulfilled the mysterious prophecy. To make the matter worse, the girl, while sitting at the table, was approached by the "hoodoo man," who took violent hold of her hand, and immediately the hand and arm became perfectly paralyzed. ample tentimony to every angraphiced mind, that the Texas Tonic Syrup has supplied this want raid accomplished this nurpose. Its Tonic, Alterative and Antiseptic qualities are such that none can possibly be disappointed in its schoots.

Upon its own merits therefore it is sustained. A single trial is all that is needed to stamp this remedy as the greatest specifie of the age.

The ingredients of which this Medicine is composed are simple productions of siture abcombing upon certain separans in the State of Texas and were aver used by the Aboutinees of this State as a specific for Fevere of all kinds, and especially Fever and Ague, which they never failed to cure.

A colebrated physician, acquainted with those facts, has farnished up his theory upon this important subject, and hence the product properly named TEXAS TONIC SYRUP, which we now offer to the public as a specific and positive cure for Feyer and Ague, or Chillis and Fever, no matter of how long standing.
